

When the Holy Spirit comes upon the faithful gathered in Jerusalem, people from everywhere around the world hear and understand the gospel. The miracle's message is that Jesus Christ is Savior of all.

A reading from the Book of Acts: 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

    `In the last days it will be, God declares,
    that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
        and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
    and your young men shall see visions,
        and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
    in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
    and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above
    and signs on the earth below,
    blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
    and the moon to blood,
    before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Psalm 104:25-35, 37 (said)

- <sup>25</sup> O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
- <sup>26</sup> Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.
- <sup>27</sup> There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
- <sup>28</sup> All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
- <sup>29</sup> You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- <sup>30</sup> You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.
- <sup>31</sup> You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- <sup>32</sup> May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.
- <sup>33</sup> He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
- <sup>34</sup> I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- <sup>35</sup> May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- <sup>37</sup> Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

Birth into God's church through the Holy Spirit at baptism makes each Christian a child of God, established and growing – not out of fear but by courage and love.

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans: 8:14-17

All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ-- if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.
