NOVEMBER 10: "Cops and Kids" Holiday Event

Each December, The Maricopa County Fraternity Order of Police Lodge #5 hosts a holiday shopping event with disadvantaged children. Selected children are provided with new shoes, several clothing items and holiday presents – costing approximately $200 per child. The goal is to provide not only financial help, but to let children know they have someone to turn to if faced with a potential problem. Visit www.maricopacountyFOP5.org for more information.

NOVEMBER 17: West Valley Community Food Pantry (WVCFP)

Since 1991, the vision of this emergency pantry has been to provide at least three days of food and resources to those in need. Each month, volunteers work 700-800 hours to ensure that WVCFP can provide for emergency needs in the Community. Visit www.westvalleycommunityfoodpantry.org for additional information.
